NOTICE.

In consequence of the difficulties that will naturally arise from the New Measures recently passed in the House of Commons, relative to the publication of small Pamphlets, &c., the Proprietors of the Pamphleteer have been induced to offer their pages to such Members of Parliament and others as may be desirous of printing their opinions or speeches on Political or Literary subjects.

The Nos. are published in sufficiently rapid succession to allow an immediate circulation of any Pamphlet that may be desired, while the established sale of the Work offers a certainty of a very general perusal.
